DUBLIN, February 2[illegible].

A pamphlet is now in circulation her makes a great noife. It is in the ftyle and the Satire is conveyed in a letter fro Whach, of Dyot ftreet, St. Giles', Lon his mother Sheelach, of Dame ftreet, Paddy defcribes himfelf thus, when w his mother.

'Your fon Paddy, you know, is a g of a boy; much given to liquor and, mu to love; for his head and his heart are foft places about him. If his heart head aftray, there is no knowing to wha poor Paddy will go. And if his head heart aftray, there is no telling what h not do. Paddy you know my dear mo good humoured and ferocious. He is and manly. He is forgiving and vind He is loyal and difloyal. He is roufed by and appeafed by a feather. He is a zep a whirlwind. He is a gull and an ea loves liberty and he would deftroy it. flavery and he would enforce it. A wo of freedom, he is a great ariftocrat. De upon a native and grinding ariftocracy, the rod, and would fhun the independ incorporating with a rich, a generous happy fort of people. He will heark nation of flaves. He will fpurn at a n freemen. He has fome love for a foreig try that he hates, and much hatred for a country that he loves. He is fond o united, though hoftile to union. He is animal, though he courts feparation, is a lover of eafe, though he is an in commotion.'

LONDON, February 19.

On the 16th the Directory fent a mef the two Councils as follows:

'The Ottoman Porte, informed th expedition to Egypt was only directed its real enemies, had begun to look upon a more favorable eye; but it was foon le by the perfidious infinuations of Britain coalefced powers. The war which it declared againft its ancient and faithful all been the fruit of this error, and will lea total ruin. It has drawn the Barbary into war with France. The French gove has adopted meafures of reprifal, and you notice of having done fo.'

It is reported, that the king of Prut confented to allow the Ruffian troops paffage through his dominions.

It was yefterday reported on the authc accounts received via Guernfey, that the failors at Breft had joined in a refolution fail on an expedition faid to be fitting c confequence of not having received any p the laft twelve months. A fquadron of t are in Breft harbour ready for fea.

Sunday morning arrived at Dover a carte Gravelines, with prifoners; but no French were fuffered to be put on board. The failed again in the evening for France.

By the prifoners who came over in the fome of whom are officers, who had read t ris papers in France, we learn, that it was rally underftood that a renewal of the wa the emperor was decided. In confequence rectory had ordered a new military conferip three hundred thoufand men to be levied tacking Germany, and it is faid that ever of the age between 20 and 30 is to be fent armies, except thofe whofe fituations a them particular protection. This new le partly intended to reinforce the army of the while a reinforcement was alfo intended to b to the frontiers, and a large body of tro Breft.

Such is the news brought over by the paff in the cartel. There is undoubtedly fome curacy in ftating the number of the new re on. For the preceding military confeript 200,000 men went to effect in its operatio at the measure was not carried into effect in a eat number of departments; while on every oc-ion the detachment of new conscripts were con-erably decreased by desertion on their way to n the armies. It can hardly be supposed that the ectory would, under such circumstances have ourse to the expedient of raising 200,000 men re, on a plan similar to that which had both led and excited a great degree of discontent in ferent parts of France. We are therefore inclin- to think, that the original number of 200,000 ich was to have been raised by the first military scription, has been merely extended to that of 0,000.

It is also reported that the Directory has laid a y heavy tax upon personal property to be paid yearly instalments.

By letters from Gen. Dundas, at the Cape of od Hope, we are happy to learn that the Scotch gade and the 84th regiment sailed for India on 4th of Nov. 1900 strong, in excellent order. e boys that were inlisted in the Scotch Brigade en it was raised, were all grown up, stout and dthy, and in the front rank. The Gen. recom-nded enlisting boys in preference to men.

By a broken series of Paris papers which arrived the early part of the week, it appears that on 1st ult. citizen Marragon, the French minister Hamburgh, declared to the Senate that his pub-functions in their city had ceased. Such intima-ns when given to the agents of the haughty nch Directory have seldom failed to be followed hostilities. It would not then be very surprising, he French, recollecting the benefits they deriv-from the frost in Holland, which chained the tch shipping to their ports, should have availed mselves of a like favourable occasion to seize n Hamburgh, and the immense mass of merchan-e that lay weather bound within its walls. The th-eastern province of Holland, Greninguen, l Friesland, which are adjacent, not to say conti-us, to Hamburgh, would afford them the means striking with promptitude a blow as favourable their schemes of plunder, as it would be ruinous that object of their inveterate envy the British nmerce—a blow that would be felt throughout s whole island; and that would produce par-alar distress and consternation in this great tra-g city.

That such an event is not altogether out of the ntemplation of government, seems to be strong-mplied by the orders given to detain the packets Yarmouth, till there shall be some arrival from continent,

It has long been matter of surprize to many, t so tempting a bait to republican rapacity as mburgh, should so long have escaped their gs; and indeed their abstinence is not to be ily accounted for, unless we suppose that they nted a pretence, or the consent of the cabinet Berlin. We have seen too much of the vigour their councils and of their arms, to be able to that they may not have obtained the acquies-nce of the king of Prussia, or have disdained to t it; and as to a pretence, they have certainly nd one in the obstinate detention of Irishmen aring commissions in the service of the Republic. At the time that the senate of Hamburgh first nsented, at the instance of the British minister, take that bold, and, we believed unprecedented p, malcontents were not wanting to blame our ministration for furnishing a new plea for French pine, and for impelling another petty state to its in. But after all, could the invasion of Ham-rgh—could any loss of trade to be expected to untervail the pleasure of hanging three or four nited Irishmen? While we make these observa-ons, ardently desire that a shift of wind, or a total earance of the ice will prove them vain—that ckets may arrive well stored with money to re-enish the purses of our merchants, and with intel-gence to fill the columns of our print.

Some irregular set of French papers, to the 18th stant, reached town yesterday by the way of olland, and likewise some Leyden papers were ceived by the same conveyance.

These gazettes tend to confirm the report, con-rning the order issued by the French directory r the repuisition of new levies of men. A simi-r order has been issued by the Batavain republic, daining, "that all citizens, without exception, e enjoined to serve in person in the armies. No ne is to be exempted from this duty; nor allow-l to find substitutes. Old age, corporal infirmi-es, and administrative employments are the only exemptions. All citizens, from the age of 20 to 30, e to serve in the first conscription for the present ear." The execution of these regulations is to be stened as much as possible.

Pittsburgh, May 11.

The Grand Jury of Bedford county, convened April Term, 1799, conceiving it highly ne-ssary that a true Republican character should selected to succeed the present Governor, have erefore unanimously agreed to support, and re-mmend to their fellow citizens, JAMES OSS, Esq. of Pittsburgh.

William Clark, Foreman; John Williams, meon Kenton, David Beckwith, John Stilwell, cob Hart, Philip Batner, Amos Evans, Charles eckle, Thomas Moode, Abraham Blair, Henry untz, Samuel Truax, Jacob Fleckinger, Micha-Sills, Joseph Truax, Abijah Akers, John Har-rode, John Truax, John Knisely.

For the information of the public we mention, at there is a Post Office established in the Town Chilicothe, North Western Territory. All rsons having business in that country may now ve a speedy and safe conveyance by post, for ters, packets, &c.

this month, appoint James M'Gill to set-tle, apply for and receive all and singular the dues on the books of the firm of Joseph Haigh and James M'Gill, and upon receipt of the mo-nies make sufficient acquittances for the same—Notice is therefore given to those indebted to the said firm, to make immediate payment to JAMES M'GILL, in whose hands the books are deposited.

ALL concerned will please take notice, that in-asmuch as John Reed for some time past, has had thoughts of establishing himself at Wabash river at some future period, and having set out for that country some days ago in order to view the same, divers persons have set up claims against him, which appears to be unjust, and others who may have just demands, modestly standing back; there is danger that his property, which appears to be thought as fair game by some unprincipled persons will be rendered insufficient to satisfy the just de-mands of his creditors on his return. Therefore, his wife thinks it adviseable to invite his creditors to come forward while any thing remains, and to enter on some plan for securing his property to their use, and thereby prevent the unprincipled from mak-ing a prey of it.

PHILADELPHIA, May 3.

The trial of John Fries, was yesterday continu-ed in the Circuit Court.—We understand all the evidence is not yet delivered.

The ships General Washington and Star, sup-posed to be taken by the British, were well armed, and belong to Mr. Daniel Cox, of this city. They sailed from hence for New-Orleans, about the middle of March. Major Cushing, appointed to the command of the American station at Nat-chez, went passenger in one of these vessels.

On Sunday arrived at New York the armed ship Integrity, in 32 days from Surrinam.

A gentleman who came passenger in her in-forms that four Spanish frigates with 600 Ger-man troops (eighty of whom died after their ar-rival) in the service of Spain, had arrived at Surrinam from Cadiz, and that a squadron of Dutch frigates and a schooner, sailed from thence, their destination unknown.

Yesterday morning was conducted into this city by a detachment of United States marines, under the command of Lieut. Carmick, the French pri-soners lately confined in Lancaster jail, amount-ing to eighty-six. They were all safely lodged in the jail of this city.

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.

The majority by which General Marshall was elected, is 114. In four of the five counties which compose his district, the General had a majority of votes.

General Henry Lee is elected by a majority of 35 votes, against Citizen Doctor Jones.

Col. Josiah Parker is re-elected.

George Hancock, Esq. is elected, vice Citizen Trigg.

Robert Page, Esq. a decided federalist, is elect-ed, vice General Morgan, declined.

Samuel Goode, Esq. also an undoubted feder-alist, is elected, in the room of Colonel Thomas Claiborne.

James Machir, Esq. has declined a re-election in favour of Major Haymond, a federalist; of whose election against Citizen Jackson, the de-mocratic candidate, no doubt, is entertained.

Of the re-election of Mr. Evans, there is no doubt.

Eggleston is re-elected against M'Rea.

Nicholas is re-elected by a majority of 58.

William Larwill,

RETURNS his sincere thanks to his friends for the generous assistance afforded him since he was put in confinement—his stores hav-ing been broke open by night, and his property violently taken away by a certain William Gaz-zam, who advertises he is authorised to receive debts due me, but it is unfortunate for the said Gazzam, he can produce no account against one person. Larwill, who is disposed to pay his just debts, has a right to receive, as will be seen in the following note that has been obligingly sent him.

Pittsburgh, February 14, 1799.

Pittsburgh, February 9, 1799.

SIR,

HAVING been of your council from the first, and acquainted with every transaction relative to what William Gazzam in his advertisement in the Pittsburgh Gazette, calls an assignment of your property, we are of opinion that it was not an assignment, but an agreement to assign and changed no property, until actual delivery, and even as to what was delivered the property re-verted and became vested in you, as the agree-ment was waved by Gazzam on recurring to his suit, in consideration of withdrawing which the agreement was made; and that now you have a right to retain, or regain, as the case may be, and to recover your debts as if no such agree-ment had ever taken place.
